SOCIOLOGY.GSU.EDU
Sociology majors explore the ways in which individual experiences and communal events are linked to all the different forms of human behavior and social relationships.

Our programs help students develop an understanding of both everyday social behavior and the structural factors that contribute to social justice. Whether you are a major or minor, we are happy that you’ve decided to make our department your home on campus.

STUDENT LIFE
Our undergraduate program is designed to create an environment that stimulates intellectual curiosity and encourages creative and critical thinking. We offer a wide variety of courses that provide students with a solid background in sociology and help improve their understanding of society, community life and social dynamics.

DEGREE PROGRAMS
- B.A. in Sociology
- Minor in Sociology
- Dual B.A./M.A. in Sociology
- Dual B.A. in Sociology/M.A. in Gerontology
